If ocean views, walks on the beach and cool ocean swims are what you think of when looking for a Forster property then look no further. This ultimate beach house is situated at the top of the famous One Mile Beach sand dune allowing for uninterrupted views of the ocean and the full length of the beach.

This three bedroom, two bathroom home takes full advantage of the vista with a large open plan living area opening through stacker doors to the balcony. Sit out there and watch the whales as they make their stately way up the coastline.

The view from the master bedroom needs to be seen to be believed, built in wardrobes and the main bathroom right next door. Bedrooms two and three are situated at the other end of the house and have their own combination
